Assembly Program

A powerful, interactive and dynamic student-centered assembly program for high school students designed to give a voice to the targets of bullying and bias; build empathy in the aggressors; and, inspire and empower bystanders to become allies. The preparation for the assembly requires two 3-hour training sessions for a select group of students and staff. The program also includes an on-site planning meeting, a follow-up meeting and consultation.

Provide a safe forum for students to examine issues of bias and bullying. Support an inclusive and respectful school climate. Effect positive change!
