SECURITY RESOURCES FOR THE JEWISH COMMUNITY

ABOUT THE ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE (ADL)

ADL is a civil rights and human relations organization, founded in 1913, “to stop the defamation of the Jewish people and to secure justice and fair treatment to all.” Today ADL has a staff of 300 and a network of 28 Regional and Satellite Offices in the United States and abroad.

ADL’S SECURITY RESOURCES: A COMPREHENSIVE SUITE OF INFORMATION AND PRODUCTS

- Training: Learn How To Assess Risks, Manage Crises, and Develop Security Plans

ADL provides training to Jewish institutions and organizations to assist them in the security planning process. Our programs include information on suspicious activity reporting, mailroom security, Internet security, access control, developing relationships with law enforcement and more.

- ADL’s Guide to Protecting Your Institution: A Comprehensive Manual on Institutional Security Right at Your Fingertips

ADL’s Jewish communal-specific security manual Protecting Your Jewish Institution was created to help security planners at all types of institutions. The manual and crucial updates are available online at www.adl.org/security

- Bulletins and Alerts: Sign Up to Receive Critical Information on Fast-Breaking Situations

Tapping into information from ADL’s own Center on Extremism and from law enforcement, ADL sends out periodic updates and alerts to Jewish institutions and organizations in order to communicate important information relating to communal security.

- ADL’s Center on Extremism: The Recognized Authority on Hate

ADL’s Center on Extremism is staffed with the nation’s leading experts on domestic extremism, terrorism, organized hate groups and hate crimes. The Center continually monitors and reports on threats to our communal institutions.

- Law Enforcement Outreach: Connecting You With Law Enforcement

ADL has developed an unparalleled set of relationships with law enforcement officials across the country. Among other benefits, this enables your ADL regional office to connect your Jewish organization or institution with relevant local, state and federal law enforcement leaders.

- Regional Offices: Your Point of Contact With ADL in Your Local Community

ADL is on-the-ground in your community, with customized trainings and alerts – and local investigators and analysts.
