It's an Action. Not a Label.

Empowering Students to Act as Leaders and Allies on Campus

CampusAlly is an interactive and experiential training program designed to provide college students with the knowledge, empathy and skills necessary to be allies when they encounter bias, prejudice or discrimination on campus. Students will be prepared to step up as leaders in creating inclusive and equitable campus communities.

Program Features

- Half-day (3–4 hours) or full-day (6–8 hours) trainings
- Delivered by two facilitators from diverse backgrounds
- Customizable for client's needs
